In case of withdrawal from the contract, the Consumer has the right to a refund or exchange for another product. The money will be returned to the customer after the goods are returned to the merchant's headquarters. The merchant has the right to refuse to return the money if he finds that the goods are not in good condition, due to the fact that the buyer handled the goods inadequately or improperly. The refund to the customer will be made to the current account specified in the form. To the buyer who does not have an open current account, the refund will be made electronically by postal order within 7 days of canceling the purchase. The costs of returning the goods are borne by the buyer. The data you provide in this form are used to record changes in the circulation of goods and ANIMA d.o.o. will not use them for other purposes.
